The need for and desirability of ministries are recognized by the Pastor and staff, the main organizations of the church, the committees of the church, or the deacon body, and shall be authorized by the church in conference.

A ministry, once approved, shall be assigned by the church conference to a "ministry managing entity" such as the Pastor and staff, a main organization, the deacon body, or a church committee.

Funding, if required, for authorized ministries will be approved by the church in conference upon the recommendation and concurrence of the Budget & Finance Committee. Such funding may consist of an assignment of funds already existing in the church budget. A ministry is not authorized to spend funds until approved by the church conference.

The ministry managing entity will be responsible for assuring that the ministry adheres to all Budget & Finance Committee processes as set forth in the church financial guidelines.

Ministries of the church shall be reported to the Church Clerk for purposes of listing them, reporting their existence to the church membership, and noting to which ministry managing entity the ministry is assigned.

Termination of a ministry shall only be effective upon notice to the church in conference and with the church’s concurrence in termination.

The church, in conference, may also direct other actions as to the ministry as it sees fit as benefiting the work of the church.

All officers and Team Coordinators shall be members in good standing.

A. Pastor

The term of office of the Pastor shall be indefinite and shall continue until the relationship is dissolved at the request of either the Pastor or the church. In either case, at least thirty (30) calendar days' notice shall be given of termination of the relationship, unless otherwise mutually agreed, with both the Pastor and the church seeking to follow the will of God and the leadership of the Holy Spirit.

The committee shall bring only one (1) name at a time for consideration by the church. Election shall be by an affirmative vote of at least three-fourths (3/4) of members present and voting.

The Pastor shall perform all duties that usually pertain to that office and shall be an ex-officio member without vote of all organizations, departments, and committees and has authority to call a special meeting of the deacons or any committee. He shall have special charge of the pulpit ministry of the church, and shall in cooperation with the deacons provide for pulpit supply when he is absent, and shall arrange for workers to assist in revival meetings and other special services.

B. Deacons

Role

The meaning of the term "deacon" is "servant," and as such all deacons are expected to be involved in a ministry of service to the people of the church and community (see "The Origin of Deacon" in Addendum Two: The Office of Deacons for more details).
Deacons, as key leaders of the church, are expected to discover, develop and utilize their God-given spiritual gifts to meet targeted needs of the church (see "Deacon Ministry and Spiritual Gifts" in Addendum Two: The Office of Deacons for more details).

Responsibilities

It shall be the duty of the deacons to visit the members of the church, giving special attention to the sick, and to encourage the members in Christian worship, service, and stewardship. They shall endeavor to keep the harmony and the spirit of cooperation among the members, and to be diligent in their attendance of the church's services. They shall be responsible for the preparation and distribution of the elements of the Lord's Supper. They shall at all times render active assistance to the Pastor in promoting the success of the church. They shall also serve as a sounding board for the Pastor, staff, or others for major strategies or decisions, providing their counsel, prayers, and support when sought.

Ministries

The deacons will accomplish their responsibilities through organized ministry teams. The deacons and all church staff, organizations, and committees shall work cooperatively with one another as to these deacon ministry teams so as to serve the best interest of the church and its members. The deacon ministry teams may include Hospital and Bereavement, Inreach/Outreach, Widow/Widower and such others as identified by the deacon body. Every active deacon will be expected to serve on a ministry team. Each church year the make-up of the ministry teams will be evaluated and updated. Deacons will have the opportunity to change from one ministry team to another during September if they so choose. Each deacon may choose the ministry team on which to serve. If any deacon is unable to serve in the deacon ministry because of age or health, he will be given the opportunity to change his status to "Deacon Emeritus," and will be honored in a special, public way since "those who have served well gain an excellent standing" (1 Timothy 3:13). The vacancy created will be filled according to the subsequent election guidelines section.

Ministry Team Leaders

Each deacon ministry team will have a team leader who is an ordained and active deacon, who is an active member of the ministry team, and who will be selected annually, no later than September, by the members of that ministry team. Deacons serving on a ministry team will be accountable to the team leader and to one another for carrying out their service.

Deacon Officers

The deacon officers shall be Chairman/Moderator, Vice-Chairman and Secretary. The Chairman/Moderator shall be responsible for presiding at deacon meetings and at meetings of the Deacon Council. The Deacon Chairman/Moderator also serves as the Church Moderator, presiding at all regular or special church business conferences. The Deacon Chairman/Moderator shall also serve as the Pastor's assistant during communion, but may with the consent of the Pastor designate another active or inactive ordained deacon to assist the Pastor at communion. The Vice-Chairman shall preside in the absence of the Chairman/Moderator. The Vice-Chairman shall also be responsible for making periodic contact with committees of the church, reviewing their operation, any concerns of the committee, or any church member's concern as to the committee's operation, and report to the Deacon Council items requiring attention. The Secretary shall take minutes of all deacon meetings and Deacon Council meetings. The Secretary, when not able to attend said meetings, shall designate a substitute to take minutes.

Deacon Council

The members of the Deacon Council shall consist of the following: Pastor, deacon officers, deacon ministry team leaders, and ministerial staff members designated by the Pastor. The Deacon Council will evaluate annually, no later than September, the perpetuation of existing deacon ministries or the initiation of new deacon ministry teams to address concerns or needs of the church body. Adjustments may be made in existing ministries to make them more effective. Proposals to add or remove deacon ministry teams require a majority vote of the deacon body. While the deacon ministry teams are deacon-led and implemented, this fact does not preclude the possibility of other church members assisting in the ministry. Changes to deacon ministry teams will be shared with the congregation for affirmation by majority vote after approval by the deacon body.

The Deacon Vice-Chairman shall report any findings resulting from committee contact to the Deacon Council, which shall attempt to resolve any concerns by discussion with the involved parties, and shall forward any unresolved issues or resolutions needing congregational approval to the congregation for possible action in a business conference. In the departure of the Pastor, the Deacon Council shall have the duty to ensure the regular worship of the church is maintained by making sure the pulpit is filled by staff ministers, guests, or an Interim Pastor. The Deacon Council, in acting in its pulpit supply capacity, shall have the freedom to research, interview, solicit, and attend a worship service of a possible Interim Pastor. The Deacon Council will make recommendations as to the Interim Pastor's hiring, retention or dismissal, but any action to hire, retain or terminate an Interim Pastor shall be subject to congregational approval.

Deacon Meetings

The deacon body will meet as needed for ministry team reports, prayer, and support of one another. The Pastor and/or the Deacon Chairman/Moderator may call a meeting of the deacon body, providing sufficient advanced notice whenever possible. All deacon meetings are open to any church member, but the participation by a church member at a deacon meeting is solely at the discretion of the deacon officer presiding at such meeting. During each deacon meeting, the deacon ministry team leaders will provide a qualitative and quantitative report to the deacon body.

Nomination and Election of Deacons

There shall be at least fifteen (15) deacons, serving on a rotation system, who shall be elected for a term of three (3) years with one third (1/3) of the number being elected each year. This number may be increased by multiples of three (3) as desired by the church membership without a revision of the By-Laws. No deacon shall be eligible for re-election until a lapse of one (1) year after the termination of his term of service. In case of a vacancy, it shall be the responsibility of the Nominating Committee to fill the vacancy as soon as possible. Persons elected to fill vacancies of one (1) year or less shall be eligible for re-election without a one-year lapse.

Deacons shall be elected from among the adult church members who have proven themselves to have scriptural qualification and who, after self-examination, find that they meet the criteria contained in the section "Character and Qualifications of a Deacon" in Addendum Two: The Office of Deacon. They shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee in the following manner and at the same time as the other church officers, and must have been a member of this church for a consistent period of one (1) year or more prior to election.

The notice shall include a biographical sketch of each nominee and indicate that photos, individual or group, shall be posted in conspicuous places throughout the church facilities.

The Nominating Committee shall submit up to two (2) names for each vacancy, and the church shall vote by secret ballot for one (1) deacon for each vacancy. Those receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected. If nominees are to be chosen to fill both full terms and unexpired terms, the nominees receiving the highest number of votes will fill the full terms and those nominees receiving the next highest number of votes will fill the unexpired or partial terms. In case of a tie, additional ballots shall be cast until all vacancies are filled. The remainder of the nominees, in order of the highest number of votes received, shall be the source of nominees for the Nominating Committee to use in filling vacancies that may occur after the beginning of the church year.

Nomination & Election of Deacon Officers

The Deacon Chairman/Moderator will appoint an ad-hoc nominating committee no later than April of each church year, which is comprised of active deacons whose purpose will be to prayerfully consider a recommended slate of officers for the upcoming church year. The slate of nominees will be provided to the deacon body in writing at least two (2) weeks prior to the deacon meeting at which the election of officers is scheduled. The deacons shall elect the new officers, based upon the slate of nominees from the ad-hoc nominating committee or additional nominees from the floor, at a meeting no later than August 15th each year. The existing officers will work with the newly-elected officers to ensure a smooth transition of responsibilities.

The church shall elect three (3) members to serve as Trustees, one of whom shall be the chairman. Their term of office shall be for three (3) years with one member being elected each year. Vacancies may be filled at any time with the one elected filling the unexpired term of the one whose vacancy is being filled. No Trustee shall be eligible for re-election for a period of one (1) year after serving a full term.

The Trustees shall, as provided by law and the action of the church, hold in trust the title to all real property of the church and shall represent the church in all matters of legal responsibility regarding the purchase, improvement, and disposal of church property. They shall execute all legal papers relating to the church and to the community as the church may direct. They shall have no power to buy, sell, mortgage, lease, or transfer any property of the church without a majority vote of the members present and voting such action; neither shall they have any control over the use of the church property except by vote of the church.

Disposition of non-titled personal property (furniture and fixtures, equipment and the like) which has exceeded its useful life, or is of no value to the ministry of the church, is the responsibility of the Property and Planning Committee. Procedures regarding the disposition of these items are provided in the roles and responsibilities of the Property and Planning Committee (Article IX, Section 4 – Standing Committees and Their Duties).

The Church Clerk or his/her designee in the church office shall make requests for and issue letters of transfer and report to the church for approval, and preserve all papers, valuable letters, and records relating to membership, thereby preserving an accurate roll of the church membership, with dates and methods of admission and transfer, changes in names, changes in mailing addresses, records of terminations and other pertinent information. ADDENDUM ONE: ARTICLES OF FAITH

(Source: <http://www.sbc.net/bfm2000/bfm2000.asp>)

Preamble: The Baptist Faith & Message adopted by Southern Baptist Convention June 14, 2000

The 1999 session of the Southern Baptist Convention, meeting in Atlanta, Georgia, adopted the following motion addressed to the President of the Convention:

“I move that in your capacity as Southern Baptist Convention chairman, you appoint a blue ribbon committee to review the Baptist Faith and Message statement with the responsibility to report and bring any recommendations to this meeting next June in Orlando.”

President Paige Patterson appointed the committee as follows: Max Barnett (OK), Steve Gaines (AL), Susie Hawkins (TX), Rudy A. Hernandez (TX), Charles S. Kelley, Jr. (LA), Heather King (IN), Richard D. Land (TN), Fred Luter (LA), R. Albert Mohler, Jr. (KY), T. C. Pinckney (VA), Nelson Price (GA), Adrian Rogers (TN), Roger Spradlin (CA), Simon Tsoi (AZ), Jerry Vines (FL); Adrian Rogers (TN) was appointed chairman.

Your committee thus constituted begs leave to present its report as follows:

Baptists are a people of deep beliefs and cherished doctrines. Throughout our history we have been a confessional people, adopting statements of faith as a witness to our beliefs and a pledge of our faithfulness to the doctrines revealed in Holy Scripture.

Our confessions of faith are rooted in historical precedent, as the church in every age has been called upon to define and defend its beliefs. Each generation of Christians bears the responsibility of guarding the treasury of truth that has been entrusted to us [2 Timothy 1:14]. Facing a new century, Southern Baptists must meet the demands and duties of the present hour.

New challenges to faith appear in every age. A pervasive anti-supernaturalism in the culture was answered by Southern Baptists in 1925, when the Baptist Faith and Message was first adopted by this Convention. In 1963, Southern Baptists responded to assaults upon the authority and truthfulness of the Bible by adopting revisions to the Baptist Faith and Message. The Convention added an article on “The Family” in 1998, thus answering cultural confusion with the clear teachings of Scripture. Now, faced with a culture hostile to the very notion of truth, this generation of Baptists must claim anew the eternal truths of the Christian faith.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH – CARY, NORTH CAROLINA

Your committee respects and celebrates the heritage of the Baptist Faith and Message, and affirms the decision of the Convention in 1925 to adopt the New Hampshire Confession of Faith, “revised at certain points and with some additional articles growing out of certain needs” We also respect the important contributions of the 1925 and 1963 editions of the Baptist Faith and Message.

With the 1963 committee, we have been guided in our work by the 1925 “statement of the historic Baptist conception of the nature and function of confessions of faith in our religious and denominational life” It is, therefore, quoted in full as a part of this report to the Convention:

(1) That they constitute a consensus of opinion of some Baptist body, large or small, for the general instruction and guidance of our own people and others concerning those articles of the Christian faith which are most surely held among us. They are not intended to add anything to the simple conditions of salvation revealed in the New Testament, viz., repentance toward God and faith in Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord.

(2) That we do not regard them as complete statements of our faith, having any quality of finality or infallibility. As in the past so in the future, Baptists should hold themselves free to revise their statements of faith as may seem to them wise and expedient at any time.

(3) That any group of Baptists, large or small, have the inherent right to draw up for themselves and publish to the world a confession of their faith whenever they may think it advisable to do so.

(4) That the sole authority for faith and practice among Baptists is the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments. Confessions are only guides in interpretation, having no authority over the conscience.

(5) That they are statements of religious convictions, drawn from the Scriptures, and are not to be used to hamper freedom of thought or investigation in other realms of life.

Baptists cherish and defend religious liberty, and deny the right of any secular or religious authority to impose a confession of faith upon a church or body of churches. We honor the principles of soul competency and the priesthood of believers, affirming together both our liberty in Christ and our accountability to each other under the Word of God.

Baptist churches, associations, and general bodies have adopted confessions of faith as a witness to the world, and as instruments of doctrinal accountability. We are not embarrassed to state before the world that these are doctrines we hold precious and as essential to the Baptist tradition of faith and practice.

As a committee, we have been charged to address the “certain needs” of our own generation. In an age increasingly hostile to Christian truth, our challenge is to express the truth as revealed in Scripture, and to bear witness to Jesus Christ, who is “the Way, the Truth, and the Life.” The 1963 committee rightly sought to identify and affirm “certain definite doctrines that Baptists believe, cherish, and with which they have been and are now closely identified.” Our living faith is established upon eternal truths. “Thus this generation of Southern Baptists is in historic succession of intent and purpose as it endeavors to state for its time and theological climate those articles of the Christian faith which are most surely held among us.”

It is the purpose of this statement of faith and message to set forth certain teachings which we believe.

Respectfully Submitted,

The Baptist Faith and Message Study Committee
Adrian Rogers, Chairman

I. The Scriptures

The Holy Bible was written by men divinely inspired and is God’s revelation of Himself to man. It is a perfect treasure of divine instruction. It has God for its author, salvation for its end, and truth, without any mixture of error, for its matter. Therefore, all Scripture is totally true and trustworthy. It reveals the principles by which God judges us, and therefore is, and will remain to the end of the world, the true center of Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and religious opinions should be tried. All Scripture is a testimony to Christ, who is Himself the focus of divine revelation.

Exodus 24:4; Deuteronomy 4:1-2; 17:19; Joshua 8:34; Psalms 19:7-10; 119:11,89,105,140; Isaiah 34:16; 40:8; Jeremiah 15:16; 36:1-32; Matthew 5:17-18; 22:29; Luke 21:33; 24:44-46; John 5:39; 16:13-15; 17:17; Acts 2:16ff.; 17:11; Romans 15:4; 16:25-26; 2 Timothy 3:15-17; Hebrews 1:1-2; 4:12; 1 Peter 1:25; 2 Peter 1:19-21.

II. God

There is one and only one living and true God. He is an intelligent, spiritual, and personal Being, the Creator, Redeemer, Preserver, and Ruler of the universe. God is infinite in holiness and all other perfections. God is all powerful and all knowing; and His perfect knowledge extends to all things, past, present, and future, including the future decisions of His free creatures. To Him we owe the highest love, reverence, and obedience. The eternal triune God reveals Himself to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with distinct personal attributes, but without division of nature, essence, or being.

A. God the Father

God as Father reigns with providential care over His universe, His creatures, and the flow of the stream of human history according to the purposes of His grace. He is all powerful, all knowing, all loving, and all wise. God is Father in truth to those who become children of God through faith in Jesus Christ. He is fatherly in His attitude toward all men.

B. God the Son

Christ is the eternal Son of God. In His incarnation as Jesus Christ He was conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. Jesus perfectly revealed and did the will of God, taking upon Himself human nature with its demands and necessities and identifying Himself completely with mankind yet without sin. He honored the divine law by His personal obedience, and in His substitutionary death on the cross He made provision for the redemption of men from sin. He was raised from the dead with a glorified body and appeared to His disciples as the person who was with them before His crucifixion. He ascended into heaven and is now exalted at the right hand of God where He is the One Mediator, fully God, fully man, in whose Person is effected the reconciliation between God and man. He will return in power and glory to judge the world and to consummate His redemptive mission. He now dwells in all believers as the living and ever present Lord.

C. God the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of God, fully divine. He inspired holy men of old to write the Scriptures. Through illumination He enables men to understand truth. He exalts Christ. He convicts men of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment. He calls men to the Saviour, and effects regeneration. At the moment of regeneration He baptizes every believer into the Body of Christ. He cultivates Christian character, comforts believers, and bestows the spiritual gifts by which they serve God through His church. He seals the believer unto the day of final redemption. His presence in the Christian is the guarantee that God will bring the believer into the fullness of the stature of Christ. He enlightens and empowers the believer and the church in worship, evangelism, and service.

III. Man

Man is the special creation of God, made in His own image. He created them male and female as the crowning work of His creation. The gift of gender is thus part of the goodness of God's creation. In the beginning man was innocent of sin and was endowed by his Creator with freedom of choice. By his free choice man sinned against God and brought sin into the human race. Through the temptation of Satan man transgressed the command of God, and fell from his original innocence whereby his posterity inherited a nature and an environment inclined toward sin. Therefore, as soon as they are capable of moral action, they become transgressors and are under condemnation. Only the grace of God can bring man into His holy fellowship and enable man to fulfill the creative purpose of God. The sacredness of human personality is evident in that God created man in His own image, and in that Christ died for man; therefore, every person of every race possesses full dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love.

Genesis 1:26-30; 2:5,7,18-22; 3; 9:6; Psalms 1; 8:3-6; 32:1-5; 51:5; Isaiah 6:5; Jeremiah 17:5; Matthew 16:26; Acts 17:26-31; Romans 1:19-32; 3:10-18,23; 5:6,12,19; 6:6; 7:14-25; 8:14-18,29; 1 Corinthians 1:21-31; 15:19,21-22; Ephesians 2:1-22; Colossians 1:21-22; 3:9-11.

IV. Salvation

Salvation involves the redemption of the whole man, and is offered freely to all who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour, who by His own blood obtained eternal redemption for the believer. In its broadest sense salvation includes regeneration, justification, sanctification, and glorification. There is no salvation apart from personal faith in Jesus Christ as Lord.

A. Regeneration, or the new birth, is a work of God's grace whereby believers become new creatures in Christ Jesus. It is a change of heart wrought by the Holy Spirit through conviction of sin, to which the sinner responds in repentance toward God and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Repentance and faith are inseparable experiences of grace.

Repentance is a genuine turning from sin toward God. Faith is the acceptance of Jesus Christ and commitment of the entire personality to Him as Lord and Saviour.

B. Justification is God's gracious and full acquittal upon principles of His righteousness of all sinners who repent and believe in Christ. Justification brings the believer unto a relationship of peace and favor with God.

C. Sanctification is the experience, beginning in regeneration, by which the believer is set apart to God's purposes, and is enabled to progress toward moral and spiritual maturity through the presence and power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in him. Growth in grace should continue throughout the regenerate person's life.

D. Glorification is the culmination of salvation and is the final blessed and abiding state of the redeemed.

Genesis 3:15; Exodus 3:14-17; 6:2-8; Matthew 1:21; 4:17; 16:21-26; 27:22-28:6; Luke 1:68-69; 2:28-32; John 1:11-14,29; 3:3-21,36; 5:24; 10:9,28-29; 15:1-16; 17:17; Acts 2:21; 4:12; 15:11; 16:30-31; 17:30-31; 20:32; Romans 1:16-18; 2:4; 3:23-25; 4:3ff.; 5:8-10; 6:1-23; 8:1-18,29-39; 10:9-10,13; 13:11-14; 1 Corinthians 1:18,30; 6:19-20; 15:10; 2 Corinthians 5:17-20; Galatians 2:20; 3:13; 5:22-25; 6:15; Ephesians 1:7; 2:8-22; 4:11-16; Philippians 2:12-13; Colossians 1:9-22; 3:1ff.; 1 Thessalonians 5:23-24; 2 Timothy 1:12; Titus 2:11-14; Hebrews 2:1-3; 5:8-9; 9:24-28; 11:1-12:8,14; James 2:14-26; 1 Peter 1:2-23; 1 John 1:6-2:11; Revelation 3:20; 21:1-22:5.

V. God's Purpose of Grace

Election is the gracious purpose of God, according to which He regenerates, justifies, sanctifies, and glorifies sinners. It is consistent with the free agency of man, and comprehends all the means in connection with the end. It is the glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, and is infinitely wise, holy, and unchangeable. It excludes boasting and promotes humility.

All true believers endure to the end. Those whom God has accepted in Christ, and sanctified by His Spirit, will never fall away from the state of grace, but shall persevere to the end. Believers may fall into sin through neglect and temptation, whereby they grieve the Spirit, impair their graces and comforts, and bring reproach on the cause of Christ and temporal judgments on themselves; yet they shall be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.

Genesis 12:1-3; Exodus 19:5-8; 1 Samuel 8:4-7,19-22; Isaiah 5:1-7; Jeremiah 31:31ff.; Matthew 16:18-19; 21:28-45; 24:22,31; 25:34; Luke 1:68-79; 2:29-32; 19:41-44; 24:44-48; John 1:12-14; 3:16; 5:24; 6:44-45,65; 10:27-29; 15:16; 17:6,12,17-18; Acts 20:32; Romans 5:9-10; 8:28-39; 10:12-15; 11:5-7,26-36; 1 Corinthians 1:1-2; 15:24-28; Ephesians 1:4-23; 2:1-10; 3:1-11; Colossians 1:12-14; 2 Thessalonians 2:13-14; 2 Timothy 1:12; 2:10,19; Hebrews 11:39-12:2; James 1:12; 1 Peter 1:2-5,13; 2:4-10; 1 John 1:7-9; 2:19; 3:2.

VI. The Church

A New Testament church of the Lord Jesus Christ is an autonomous local congregation of baptized believers, associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the gospel; observing the two ordinances of Christ, governed by His laws, exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word, and seeking to extend the gospel to the ends of the earth. Each congregation operates under the Lordship of Christ through democratic processes. In such a congregation each member is responsible and accountable to Christ as Lord. Its scriptural officers are pastors and deacons. While both men and women are gifted for service in the church, the office of pastor is limited to men as qualified by Scripture.

The New Testament speaks also of the church as the Body of Christ which includes all of the redeemed of all the ages, believers from every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation.

Matthew 16:15-19; 18:15-20; Acts 2:41-42,47; 5:11-14; 6:3-6; 13:1-3; 14:23,27; 15:1-30; 16:5;20:28; Romans 1:7; 1 Corinthians 1:2; 3:16; 5:4-5; 7:17; 9:13-14; 12; Ephesians 1:22-23; 2:19-22; 3:8-11,21; 5:22-32; Philippians 1:1; Colossians 1:18; 1 Timothy 2:9-14; 3:1-15; 4:14; Hebrews 11:39-40; 1 Peter 5:1-4; Revelation 2-3; 21:2-3.

VII. Baptism and the Lord's Supper

Christian baptism is the immersion of a believer in water in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. It is an act of obedience symbolizing the believer's faith in a crucified, buried, and risen Saviour, the believer's death to sin, the burial of the old life, and the resurrection to walk in newness of life in Christ Jesus. It is a testimony to his faith in the final resurrection of the dead. Being a church ordinance, it is prerequisite to the privileges of church membership and to the Lord's Supper.

The Lord's Supper is a symbolic act of obedience whereby members of the church, through partaking of the bread and the fruit of the vine, memorialize the death of the Redeemer and anticipate His second coming.

Matthew 3:13-17; 26:26-30; 28:19-20; Mark 1:9-11; 14:22-26; Luke 3:21-22; 22:19-20; John 3:23; Acts 2:41-42; 8:35-39; 16:30-33; 20:7; Romans 6:3-5; 1 Corinthians 10:16,21; 11:23-29; Colossians 2:12.

VIII. The Lord's Day

The first day of the week is the Lord's Day. It is a Christian institution for regular observance. It commemorates the resurrection of Christ from the dead and should include exercises of worship and spiritual devotion, both public and private. Activities on the Lord's Day should be commensurate with the Christian's conscience under the Lordship of Jesus Christ.

Exodus 20:8-11; Matthew 12:1-12; 28:1ff.; Mark 2:27-28; 16:1-7; Luke 24:1-3,33-36; John 4:21-24; 20:1,19-28; Acts 20:7; Romans 14:5-10; 1 Corinthians 16:1-2; Colossians 2:16; 3:16; Revelation 1:10.

IX. The Kingdom

The Kingdom of God includes both His general sovereignty over the universe and His particular kingship over men who willfully acknowledge Him as King. Particularly the Kingdom is the realm of salvation into which men enter by trustful, childlike commitment to Jesus Christ. Christians ought to pray and to labor that the Kingdom may come and God's will be done on earth. The full consummation of the Kingdom awaits the return of Jesus Christ and the end of this age.

X. Last Things

God, in His own time and in His own way, will bring the world to its appropriate end. According to His promise, Jesus Christ will return personally and visibly in glory to the earth; the dead will be raised; and Christ will judge all men in righteousness. The unrighteous will be consigned to Hell, the place of everlasting punishment. The righteous in their resurrected and glorified bodies will receive their reward and will dwell forever in Heaven with the Lord.

XI. Evangelism and Missions

It is the duty and privilege of every follower of Christ and of every church of the Lord Jesus Christ to endeavor to make disciples of all nations. The new birth of man's spirit by God's Holy Spirit means the birth of love for others. Missionary effort on the part of all rests thus upon a spiritual necessity of the regenerate life, and is expressly and repeatedly commanded in the teachings of Christ. The Lord Jesus Christ has commanded the preaching of the gospel to all nations. It is the duty of every child of God to seek constantly to win the lost to Christ by verbal witness undergirded by a Christian lifestyle, and by other methods in harmony with the gospel of Christ.

Genesis 12:1-3; Exodus 19:5-6; Isaiah 6:1-8; Matthew 9:37-38; 10:5-15; 13:18-30, 37-43; 16:19; 22:9-10; 24:14; 28:18-20; Luke 10:1-18; 24:46-53; John 14:11-12; 15:7-8,16; 17:15; 20:21; Acts 1:8; 2; 8:26-40; 10:42-48; 13:2-3; Romans 10:13-15; Ephesians 3:1-11; 1 Thessalonians 1:8; 2 Timothy 4:5; Hebrews 2:1-3; 11:39-12:2; 1 Peter 2:4-10; Revelation 22:17.

XII. Education

Christianity is the faith of enlightenment and intelligence. In Jesus Christ abide all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. All sound learning is, therefore, a part of our Christian heritage. The new birth opens all human faculties and creates a thirst for knowledge. Moreover, the cause of education in the Kingdom of Christ is co-ordinate with the causes of missions and general benevolence, and should receive along with these the liberal support of the churches. An adequate system of Christian education is necessary to a complete spiritual program for Christ's people.

In Christian education there should be a proper balance between academic freedom and academic responsibility. Freedom in any orderly relationship of human life is always limited and never absolute. The freedom of a teacher in a Christian school, college, or seminary is limited by the pre-eminence of Jesus Christ, by the authoritative nature of the Scriptures, and by the distinct purpose for which the school exists.

XIII. Stewardship

God is the source of all blessings, temporal and spiritual; all that we have and are we owe to Him. Christians have a spiritual debtorship to the whole world, a holy trusteeship in the gospel, and a binding stewardship in their possessions. They are therefore under obligation to serve Him with their time, talents, and material possessions; and should recognize all these as entrusted to them to use for the glory of God and for helping others. According to the Scriptures, Christians should contribute of their means cheerfully, regularly, systematically, proportionately, and liberally for the advancement of the Redeemer's cause on earth.

XIV. Cooperation

Christ's people should, as occasion requires, organize such associations and conventions as may best secure cooperation for the great objects of the Kingdom of God. Such organizations have no authority over one another or over the churches. They are voluntary and advisory bodies designed to elicit, combine, and direct the energies of our people in the most effective manner. Members of New Testament churches should cooperate with one another in carrying forward the missionary, educational, and benevolent ministries for the extension of Christ's Kingdom. Christian unity in the New Testament sense is spiritual harmony and voluntary cooperation for common ends by various groups of Christ's people. Cooperation is desirable between the various Christian denominations, when the end to be attained is itself justified, and when such cooperation involves no violation of conscience or compromise of loyalty to Christ and His Word as revealed in the New Testament.

XV. The Christian and the Social Order

All Christians are under obligation to seek to make the will of Christ supreme in our own lives and in human society. Means and methods used for the improvement of society and the establishment of righteousness among men can be truly and permanently helpful only when they are rooted in the regeneration of the individual by the saving grace of God in Jesus Christ. In the spirit of Christ, Christians should oppose racism, every form of greed, selfishness, and vice, and all forms of sexual immorality, including adultery, homosexuality, and pornography. We should work to provide for the orphaned, the needy, the abused, the aged, the helpless, and the sick. We should speak on behalf of the unborn and contend for the sanctity of all human life from conception to natural death. Every Christian should seek to bring industry, government, and society as a whole under the sway of the principles of righteousness, truth, and brotherly love. In order to promote these ends Christians should be ready to work with all men of good will in any good cause, always being careful to act in the spirit of love without compromising their loyalty to Christ and His truth.

Exodus 20:3-17; Leviticus 6:2-5; Deuteronomy 10:12; 27:17; Psalm 101:5; Micah 6:8; Zechariah 8:16; Matthew 5:13-16,43-48; 22:36-40; 25:35; Mark 1:29-34; 2:3ff.; 10:21; Luke 4:18-21; 10:27-37; 20:25; John 15:12; 17:15; Romans 12-14; 1 Corinthians 5:9-10; 6:1-7; 7:20-24; 10:23-11:1; Galatians 3:26-28; Ephesians 6:5-9; Colossians 3:12-17; 1 Thessalonians 3:12; Philemon; James 1:27; 2:8.

XVI. Peace and War

It is the duty of Christians to seek peace with all men on principles of righteousness. In accordance with the spirit and teachings of Christ they should do all in their power to put an end to war.

The true remedy for the war spirit is the gospel of our Lord. The supreme need of the world is the acceptance of His teachings in all the affairs of men and nations, and the practical application of His law of love. Christian people throughout the world should pray for the reign of the Prince of Peace.

Isaiah 2:4; Matthew 5:9, 38-48; 6:33; 26:52; Luke 22:36, 38; Romans 12:18-19; 13:1-7; 14:19; Hebrews 12:14; James 4:1-2.

XVII. Religious Liberty

God alone is Lord of the conscience, and He has left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men which are contrary to His Word or not contained in it. Church and state should be separate. The state owes to every church protection and full freedom in the pursuit of its spiritual ends. In providing for such freedom no ecclesiastical group or denomination should be favored by the state more than others. Civil government being ordained of God, it is the duty of Christians to render loyal obedience thereto in all things not contrary to the revealed will of God. The church should not resort to the civil power to carry on its work. The gospel of Christ contemplates spiritual means alone for the pursuit of its ends. The state has no right to impose penalties for religious opinions of any kind. The state has no right to impose taxes for the support of any form of religion. A free church in a free state is the Christian ideal, and this implies the right of free and unhindered access to God on the part of all men, and the right to form and propagate opinions in the sphere of religion without interference by the civil power.

Genesis 1:27; 2:7; Matthew 6:6-7,24; 16:26; 22:21; John 8:36; Acts 4:19-20; Romans 6:1-2; 13:1-7; Galatians 5:1,13; Philippians 3:20; 1 Timothy 2:1-2; James 4:12; 1 Peter 2:12-17; 3:11-17;4:12-19.

XVIII. The Family

God has ordained the family as the foundational institution of human society. It is composed of persons related to one another by marriage, blood, or adoption.

Marriage is the uniting of one man and one woman in covenant commitment for a lifetime. It is God's unique gift to reveal the union between Christ and His church and to provide for the man and the woman in marriage the framework for intimate companionship, the channel of sexual expression according to Biblical standards, and the means for procreation of the human race.

The husband and wife are of equal worth before God, since both are created in God's image. The marriage relationship models the way God relates to His people. A husband is to love his wife as Christ loved the church. He has the God-given responsibility to provide for, to protect, and to lead his family. A wife is to submit herself graciously to the servant leadership of her husband even as the church willingly submits to the headship of Christ. She, being in the image of God as is her husband and thus equal to him, has the God-given responsibility to respect her husband and to serve as his helper in managing the household and nurturing the next generation.

Children, from the moment of conception, are a blessing and heritage from the Lord. Parents are to demonstrate to their children God's pattern for marriage. Parents are to teach their children spiritual and moral values and to lead them, through consistent lifestyle example and loving discipline, to make choices based on Biblical truth. Children are to honor and obey their parents.

Genesis 1:26-28; 2:15-25; 3:1-20; Exodus 20:12; Deuteronomy 6:4-9; Joshua 24:15; 1 Samuel 1:26-28; Psalms 51:5; 78:1-8; 127; 128; 139:13-16; Proverbs 1:8; 5:15-20; 6:20-22; 12:4; 13:24; 14:1; 17:6; 18:22; 22:6,15; 23:13-14; 24:3; 29:15,17; 31:10-31; Ecclesiastes 4:9-12; 9:9; Malachi 2:14-16; Matthew 5:31-32; 18:2-5; 19:3-9; Mark 10:6-12; Romans 1:18-32; 1 Corinthians 7:1-16; Ephesians 5:21-33; 6:1-4; Colossians 3:18-21; 1 Timothy 5:8,14; 2 Timothy 1:3-5; Titus 2:3-5; Hebrews 13:4; 1 Peter 3:1-7.

ADDENDUM TWO: THE OFFICE OF DEACON

The following information pertains to the office of deacon and is a guide for the understanding of that office within First Baptist Church - Cary. Two particular passages of scripture, Acts 6:1-8 and 1 Timothy 3:8-13, are the foundation upon which the following viewpoint is based.

ORIGIN OF DEACON

While Acts 6: 1-8 does not contain the word “deacon,” it has been generally agreed within the church that the election of these seven men is the beginning of deacon as a church officer. The election of these seven men came about because of the specific needs of the church at Jerusalem. There appeared to be jealousy among certain of the membership; the Greeks were complaining that their widows were not getting as much help as the Hebrew widows. The apostles were busy with the ministry “of the word of God” and did not think that such ministry should be neglected in order to “wait on tables.” In order for the apostles to continue in this ministry of the word and prayer, seven men were elected to assist in the daily distribution of food. It should be noted that the office of deacon came into being for practical service and to alleviate the dissension within the community of believers.

The position of deacon within the church is one of service. This distinction is seen in the Greek word “deacon” (diakonos) which can also be translated “minister” or “servant.” The New Testament uses this same word in a general sense to describe Christians as servants and also in a particular way as an officer set aside for service. Service is the call of one who becomes a deacon in the church.

DEACON MINISTRY AND SPIRITUAL GIFTS

All Christians are given spiritual gifts “as a manifestation of the Holy Spirit for the common good” (1 Corinthians 12:7). The gifts of the Spirit are to prepare God’s people for works of service so that “the body of Christ may be built up” (Ephesians 4:12). Key New Testament passages on spiritual gifts are Ephesians 4:11-13, Romans 12:4-8 and 1 Corinthians 12:1-11. Spiritual gifts are to be distinguished from God-given talents (e.g. playing the piano) and fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22).

Deacons, as key leaders of the early church, used their gifts in ministry, such as Philip as a deacon and evangelist (Acts 6:5, Acts 8:26-41). Deacons, therefore, will have more effective deacon ministries as they discover, develop and utilize God-given spiritual gifts to meet targeted needs of the church.

CHARACTER AND QUALIFICATIONS OF A DEACON

The scriptures list several aspects of character which should be integrated in the personality of one who serves as a deacon. These include the following:

1. A person of integrity. This quality is referred to as “of good report” (KJV) or “of good repute” (RSV) by the writer of Acts. The usage of the Greek in this passage (Acts 6:3) means “to be well reported of, to have (good) testimony borne to one, accredited, attested, of good report, approver.” A deacon should be one whose character and conduct in daily life are such as to inspire respect and confidence.
2. A spiritual quality to life. “Full of the Holy Spirit” is the way scripture states it. The word “full” means “covered in every part thoroughly permeated with, complete, lacking nothing.” A deacon has experienced the redemption of Christ personally, is dedicated to a life of faith, and is sincerely seeking the Spirit’s guidance in that journey. The scripture does not call for “spiritual” persons to exhibit a pietistic, superior attitude, but rather to walk in an active, daily, personal relationship with Jesus Christ. The deacon should tithe and model positive Christian stewardship.
3. A person of wisdom. A deacon should possess wisdom which is practical. A deacon must have the ability to deal with people and with the service of the office. This wisdom should also include an understanding of scripture, of the way of salvation, and of disciplines in Christian growth.
4. A person of faith. By inference, it can be drawn from Acts 6:5 that a deacon should be a person with a strong faith. Deacons should possess wisdom concerning the Kingdom of God. The priorities of a deacon’s life should be directed in a faith relationship to Jesus Christ and to His service.
5. A serious person. The terms “grave” (KJV), “serious” (RSV), or “worthy of respect” (NIV) convey that a deacon should possess dignity and be respected by others within the church (1 Timothy 3:8ff).

6. An honest person. There should be the elements of trust and honesty within the character of a deacon. The meaning of the scripture is “saying one thing to one person and something else to another.” Such a person is “double tongued” and is a deceiver. The word of a deacon should be truthful and sincere.

7. A person of right conduct. The term “not given to much wine” conveys the meaning that deacons must not allow any pleasure which would lessen their witness or engage in any indulgence which would soil their Christian conduct. A Christian lifestyle is essential. The abuse of alcohol, drugs, food or other substances negates one’s representation for Jesus Christ. The Church Covenant of First Baptist Church - Cary (Reference First Baptist Church - Cary Constitution: ARTICLE IV. COVENANT AND ARTICLES OF FAITH, SECTION 1. COVENANT) indicates that members of the church are “to abstain from the sale and use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage; to use our influence to combat the abuse of drugs and the spread of pornography; and to be zealous in our efforts to advance the Kingdom of our Savior.”

8. A person who is not greedy of filthy lucre. The scripture literally means that a deacon is not to be “eager for base gain.” There should be no action in which a deacon should take dishonorable advantage of another person in order to make money. This is a strong word for ethical living within the Christian community. The deacon should be above question in matters of business and finance.

9. A person with a deep reverence for the truths of the Christian faith. A deacon should have an understanding of salvation, the basic doctrines of the church, and know something of the history of Baptists. Deacons should be ready to give testimony to their faith (1 Peter 3:15-16).

10. A person who demonstrates Christian fidelity, holds to a Biblical view of marriage, and believes in the sanctity of the Christian home. The phrase “husband of but one wife,” understood in the context of the society in which it was written, is a strong countermeasure to the polygamy, easy divorce, and sexual immorality of that time. It speaks to the same abuses in our world today. This qualification does not require marriage as a prerequisite for deaconship. Single persons can be deacons. While not affirming divorce, this church body does affirm the Biblical doctrines of sin and forgiveness. Thus, divorce is seen as another indicator of the brokenness of human society and must be met with the gospel message of forgiveness and new beginning. Persons should not be eliminated from serving as deacons because of a divorce, provided that divorce meets criteria from the Bible such as Matthew 5:32 and 1 Corinthians 7:10-13. Persons selected to serve as deacons should, however, exhibit a strong sense of Christian morality and affirm the Christian institution of marriage and the Christian home. The deacon shall not participate in, or condone, homosexual activities.

REFLECTIONS ON BECOMING A DEACON

As you read this material, you may begin to question whether you are worthy of serving as a deacon. That's not an uncommon feeling. Perhaps it is the type of feeling one often gets when one approaches the message of scripture honestly. Remember, however, that there is message of grace in which God meets you, His Spirit directs you, and you begin anew each day. You may be just the person for service as a deacon and God's Spirit may be working with you at this moment as you make a decision concerning deaconship.

Reflecting upon the above material, four simple questions may assist you in determining whether or not God is calling you to this place of service. First, what do you think of the church's current statement of faith? If you can fit within that theological framework you will have no difficulty serving First Baptist Church - Cary as a deacon.

Second, what is your commitment to First Baptist Church - Cary and its various programs of ministry? While it may be impossible to attend every function of the church, do you participate in the major functions? A deacon leads by example and needs to be active in the church program. While not a program as such, one who is a deacon should believe in and practice tithing.

Third, what does your time schedule look like? There is no doubt that to become a deacon demands some reallocation of your time. You will need time for your ministry team service, to attend deacon meetings, and to participate in other church activities. Commitment of time and self are prerequisites for a person to become an effective deacon.

Finally, do you feel any sense of God calling you to the position of deacon? While you may be feeling inadequate and questioning your abilities, is there still a sense in which you feel God wants you in this kind of service? Listen to that still small voice within you. Being a deacon is a tremendous place to serve our Lord Jesus Christ.

ADDENDUM FOUR: CONFLICT AND PROBLEM RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

Scriptural Basis for Problem Resolution Procedure Matthew 18:15-17	Verse 15: If your brother sins against you, go and show him his fault, just between the two of you. If he listens to you, you have won your brother over.	Verse 16: But if he will not listen, take one or two others along, so that every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.	Verse 17: If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church;	Verse 17 cont.: and if he refuses to listen even to the church, treat him as you would a pagan or tax collector.
	Step 1	Step 2	Step 3	Step 4
PERSON TO PERSON TRESPASS	Go to the person and confront the trespass, with love and compassion, with the goal of restoration and church harmony.	Go to the person with one or more and confront the trespass. Only proceed to step 3 when deacon officers and Sr. Pastor have exhausted efforts to resolve the issue.	Bring the trespass before the church (only after deacon officers and the Pastor have been advised and no other recourse is possible.)	If trespass is confirmed and not resolved, church is to exclude the person from church membership. See church Constitution Article I, Section 7, Discipline and Problem Resolution.

Clarifications:

If the person who trespasses is a deacon, Step 2 should include one of the deacon officers.

If the person who trespasses is a staff member, Step 2 should include the Pastor.

If the person who trespasses is the Pastor, Step 2 should include one of the deacon officers.

	Step 1	Step 2
PROBLEM THAT IS NOT PERSON TO PERSON. Examples could include: Problems phoning the church office, parking problems, music too loud, etc.	Call a deacon. They will either handle directly or direct you to the proper place, i.e. Building and Grounds Committee (From Acts 6 regarding deacons role of service)	If the problem is not resolved by the deacon to your satisfaction then call one of the deacon officers. Allow a reasonable timeframe for the deacon to address with church committees, etc. and follow up with you as to action taken within 2-3 weeks before calling

ADDENDUM FIVE: MARRIAGE AND THE WEDDING CEREMONY

First Baptist Church – Cary believes that because God has ordained marriage and defined it as the covenant relationship between a man, a woman, and Himself, we will only recognize marriage as between a biological man and biological woman. Further, the pastors, ministers and staff of First Baptist Church – Cary will only participate in weddings and solemnize marriages between one man and one woman.

Furthermore, the facilities and property of First Baptist Church – Cary shall only host weddings between one man and one woman who are in agreement with this belief as stated above.

We believe that the wedding ceremony is a sacred event of the church and is a religious ceremony between a man and a woman who invoke the blessings of God in holy wedlock; God is always the central focus. Everything in your wedding should give evidence that we are at worship, bringing your willing commitment before the Lord for His blessing. It is the purpose of the Pastor and the church family to make each wedding ceremony a beautiful and worshipful event.
